Medical Aid

- If you believe you have been exposed to coronavirus or influenza (the flu), call your healthcare provider to report your symptoms before visiting a hospital or healthcare facility. Doctors decide on COVID-19 testing. Medicaid covers testing for coronavirus (COVID-19) if the test is ordered by your doctor. If you don't have a doctor/primary care provider, report your symptoms to DC Health, (202) 576-1117. The DC Department of Health is offering free, appointment-required COVID-19 testing for DC residents. If you experience symptoms like fever, cough, and shortness of breath and would like to be tested, call (855)-363-0333, Monday - Friday from 8:30am to 4:30pm.
